THE CLEANEST KNOCK-OUT

Ever Witnessed in a Bing Fight Administered to Feter Maher by "Kid" McCoy Yesterday Afternoon.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1,-"Rid" McCoy again piaced himself in the champion-ship class by defeating Peter Maher in ship class by defeating Peter Maner in a brisk, well-fought battle of five rounds, before the Coney Island Athletic Ulub this afternoon. The fight was scheduled to last twenty-five rounds and the purse was to have been 326,000, but the attendance was not as large as had been expected, and believe the way to be reproceed. fore the fight was begun the principals agreed that the winner should receive the gross gate receipts.

The battle was hard fought from start to finish, but McCoy was far the eleverer man in ring tactics, dodging, side-stepping and hitting powers. He showed himself to be a good ring general, ever watching for an opening and never falling to take advantage of one. Maher, although credited with being a heavy hitter, did not get in many effective blows. His foot work was poor, and at times he did not appear to have perfect control of himself.

When the men entered the ring and atripped for the battle both looked to be in perfect condition, and they were greeted with tumultuous applausa. Un der Marquis of Queensberry rules, ne gloves, provided by the club, wer handed to the referee, and he in tur gave them to the boxers' seconds. Ma her donned his quickly, but McCo-claimed that the gloves did not fit him and stubbornly refused to use them. H insisted on wearing an old pair, which he claimed suited him, but the refere was obdurate and McCoy gave in.

McCoy was the aggressor in the star off, forcing Maher to break ground The Kid feinted cleverly with his left Maher sparring with an anxious leol on his face. Then the Kid sent a left hook to the jaw, flooring the Irishman who was up in two seconds. The Ki tried a right cross, but missed. Mahe tried a left swing for the head, bu McCoy side-stepped neatly. He essay ed another of these and again wen wide of the mark and got a left in the body for his pains. In an attempt to counter Maher over-reached himself and fell, but regained his feet almost instantly. Maher then began rushing tactics, forcing the Kid to the ropes, landing a hard right on the body. The Irishman had McCoy in a tight place at this early stage of the game, but the Kid broke away nimbly and sent a hard left to Maher's stomach before the first round had ended.

McCoy tantalized the big fellow with his feinting in the next round, and induced Peter to make vicious swings with both hands. The Kid got into close quarters, much to the surprise of Maher's friends, and while he received blows back of the shoulders, he put right and left hard to the body. On the breakaway McCoy landed a staggering left to the jaw. Then they mixed things up, Maher landing heavily on the body with both hands, and in the breakaway sent his left to the ribs. The Kid stepped back after this. When they came together again he measured the Irishman nicely and with a right on the jaw sent Peter to his hands and knees, where the Irishman remained

When Maher got up he seemed to los his head and rushed at McCoy, sending his right to the body, but received three left jabs on the face from the Kid. In a rush to the ropes the Kid slipped to the floor, but was up in a jiffy, sending his left to Maher's face, throwing the Irishman's head back. Then two lefts to the jaw and a right Then two lefts to the Jaw and over from the Kid made the gong a over from the Kid made the gong a time McCoy was more confident than He feinted, but was rushed to the ropes, where he hooked his left to the jaw and escaped from Peter's return. Then he began playing his long left into Peter's stomach, and the Trishman began sparring at long range. With a well-timed feint the Kid brought the big fellow to him and sent him back with two lefts on the jaw Maher essayed a right return, and Mc Coy ducked, and they came to a clinch, and breaking from him the Kid sent one to the face and another to Maher then tried to mix it up and forced the Kid to the ropes, but the latter got back to the center of the ring, where he landed a straight left to the face, just at the call of time.

McCoy assumed the aggressive in the jext round, but Peter evaded him. The Irishman began forcing and feinted the Kid into a left, which landed lightly on the wind. Maher forced McCoy into a peutral corner, planting a terrific left on the face, which jarred McCoy's head, McCoy side-stepped in an unusual di-rection, and Peter tried another left, which fell short. In a mix-up which followed honors were about even, but McCoy was cautioned by the referee for holding. Maher outpointed the Kid by 50 per cent in this round, sending ights and lefts to the head, while th Kid retaliated with lefts on the wind. Toward the close of the round, Maher was cautioned for holding and coming from a breakaway he sent a left hook to McCoy's face, which did the Kid n good. At this stage of the game Maher's friends became very confident that the Irishman would get the better of the Hoosier lad, but McCoy had a people had not bargained for. He waited for the big fellow, who had the better of the previous round, and

McCoy sent another right, which a bit short, and then dropping his left, to the body, tried a right swing and as Peter side-stepped, the Kid met him with a full swinging left, which landed on the point of the jaw, and the Irish-man went down, resting on his right elbow and was counted out in this posi-tion. It was a teprific blow, and, landing right on the mark, an ox could sparcely have withstood its force. It was the cleanest knock-out ever seen in a ring fight, and while some people are unkind enough to say that Maher could have gotten up again, those who were nearest to the fighters and saw the blow were of the opinion that Sullivan in his palmiest days could not have withstood it. Probably in the history of ring fights in this vicinity there-has never been so quick a change in the betting as that which occurred during the two hours preceding this fight. For some days past Maher had been the favorite as good as 100 to 60 being bet on his Maher was the ruling price when the club house doors opened this afternoon and in the different sporting centres this ratio was maintained until within an hour of the beginning of the contest. Then a peculiar condition of af-fairs occurred and for no apparent rea-son Maher stock was beared, while the Kid's was bulled, and when the men got into the ring their positions in the betting market were reversed, with the Kid the favorite.

Knocked Out By Hawkins.

HARTFORD, Conn., Jan. 1.—Dal Hawkins, of California, to-day knocked out Patsey Sweeney, of Manchester, N. H., in the second round of what was to have been a twenty round contest be fore the Outing Athletic Club.

Pennsylvania Railroad Pensioners PHILADELPHIA Jan 1-The ave em of pansioning old employes of th Pennsylvania Railroad Company on the lines east of Pittsburg was inaugur ated to-day. About 950 men, who, by reason of long service in the company's employ, have become incapacitated for further active duty, were retired on pensions that average nearly half the wages they received when at work. It is understood that a sum approximating $300,000 is at present available for pensioning purposes, and that before the system can be ex-tended to the lines west of Pittsburgh a much larger appropriation will necessary. Thus far no person holding a position of importance has been af fected by the pension rule. Hereafter no person over 35 years of age will be taken into the employ of the company

ICE STOPPED MOVING HERE.

The First Gorge Formed at Sardia, Sunday, and Has Extended to -Monday the Second Gorge Formed at Powhatan, and Later This Last Gorge Had Extended to This Port—The Ice is Very Heavy.

The New Year was notable for the The New Year was notable for the closing of the Olilo river at this port with ice, the event being pulled off last night at 10:05 o'clock. At 5 o'clock it had been reported that the ice had come to a standatill at Bellaire, four miles below, and so when the gorge formed in front of the public landing at the haur named there was no surprise manifested.

As intimated in yesterday's paper, a gorge had formed at some below Sunday. Vesterds y it was learned that this gorge formed at Sardis in the afternoon. Yesterday morning another formed at Powhatan, and this latter was the one that eventually caused the sorge at this port last night.

The closing of the river brings no change in the situation, navigation having suspended last week, owing to the heavy floating ice. Ferries have stopped at all points along the upper and where there are so bridges there is likewise no communication be tween Ohlo and West Virginia. People at Benwood and Beilaire who work on the other side of the river, are crossing via the Wheeling street car lines. Until the break-up comes there will be no change in the situation.

The river here continued rising yes terday, owing to the gorges formed below, and at 5 p. m. the marks showed a stage of nine feet and stationary.
